

APPS Fellow

Professor David Guest

David Guest has been awarded APPS Fellow because of his outstanding contributions in the following areas: -

- Outstanding Teaching and Research Training in the discipline
- An excellent record of Research achievements as evidenced by over 60 peer reviewed journal articles, 10 book chapters and 2 monographs
- An exceptionally effective effort in International Outreach with an enviable record of translating basic research outcomes into practical outcomes which have benefitted many smallholders in Southeast Asia
- Effective communication of research outcomes through well received invited keynote addresses at international conference
- Service to the discipline through editorial roles on scientific Journals, serving on research boards, advising Government and industry bodies
- Excellent service to the Australasian Plant Pathology Society.